THE STANDARD THAT WAS NOT MET

Loyalty — We value trust, commitment, and dedication in our relationships with our team, customers, and company. We work to create security, solidarity, and lasting connections.

Each item above is listed on the Performance Points sheet posted in the break room.

WHY THIS MATTERS

Moving work only holds together while people, trucks, equipment, arrival windows and the jobs behind them all stay coordinated. One person's decision carries down the rest of the day.

No call no show (tardy log) No call no show creates one of the greatest scheduling disruptions, because management cannot plan around an absence they do not know about. Dispatch waits, tries to make contact, then has to reorganise crews on the spot. The uncertainty affects coworkers, customers, labour cost and management time all at once.
Call off — time off not requested in advance Calling off without notice leaves the day short-handed. Jobs take longer, coworkers carry the heavier end, and management has to rearrange crews that were built around expected staffing.
Late — 23 min (tardy log) Even a short delay can stop a crew leaving the shop on time. Movers work as a team, so one person being late leaves several people waiting while the customer's arrival window keeps running. That delay carries into every job scheduled afterwards and creates extra labour cost, rushed conditions and customer dissatisfaction.
Truck not out on time (tardy log) The scheduled departure time exists so the crew can reach the customer inside the promised window. Delaying departure affects not only the first customer but potentially every customer that truck is booked to see that day.

WHAT THE RECORD SHOWS

Counted from the points log. These are figures the system can evidence; nothing here is an estimate.

- 2 late arrivals, of which 2 were timed at 41 minutes in total.
- 1 occasion where the truck did not leave the shop on time.
- 2 shifts missed, 1 of them without any notice at all.

WHAT ACTUALLY HAPPENED ON THE DAY

To be completed by the supervisor. Record only what is known: who was affected, how long was lost, what the customer was told.

PREVIOUS DISCUSSIONS OR WARNINGS ON THIS SUBJECT

WHAT MUST CHANGE

Arrive and be ready to work at your scheduled start time. If you are going to be late, call Matthew before the shift starts, not after.

Failure to show immediate and sustained improvement will result in further disciplinary action up to and including termination. Nothing in this notice creates any guarantee of employment for a specific period of time or in any way modifies your at-will employment relationship.
